

New Senior Secondary Curriculum

- Wants are unlimited and can never be fully satisfied.

- Wants are unlimited and can never be fully satisfied.

What is Economics?

In Economics, we study how to allocate limited resources to satisfy unlimited wants such as how we plan our spare time, how your parents allocate the family income, how the government makes use of the tax.

Public Exam 公開考試

Description 簡述		Weighting 比重 %	Time 時間
Paper 1 卷一	Multiple-choice questions 多項選擇題	30%	1 hr
Paper II 卷二	Part 1: Short questions 短答題 Part 2: Electives 選修部分	70%	2 hr 15 min

Past DSE Results

Year	DSE Passing Percentage (HK wide)
2012	83%
2013	84%
2014	85%
2015	85%
2016	85%

Curriculum

Core + Elective

Core

Microeconomics: Demand, Supply, Firm, Production,
Efficiency and Fairness

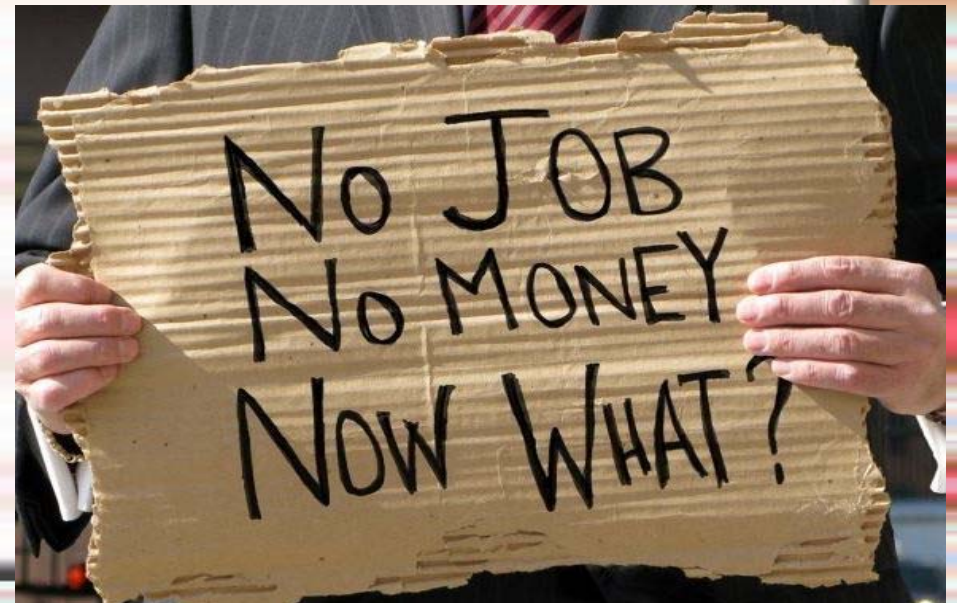

Macroeconomics: Gross National Product, Price
Level, Money and Trade

Opportunity Cost

Depression

International trade

- Absolute advantage
- Comparative advantage
- Exchange rates
- Trade barriers

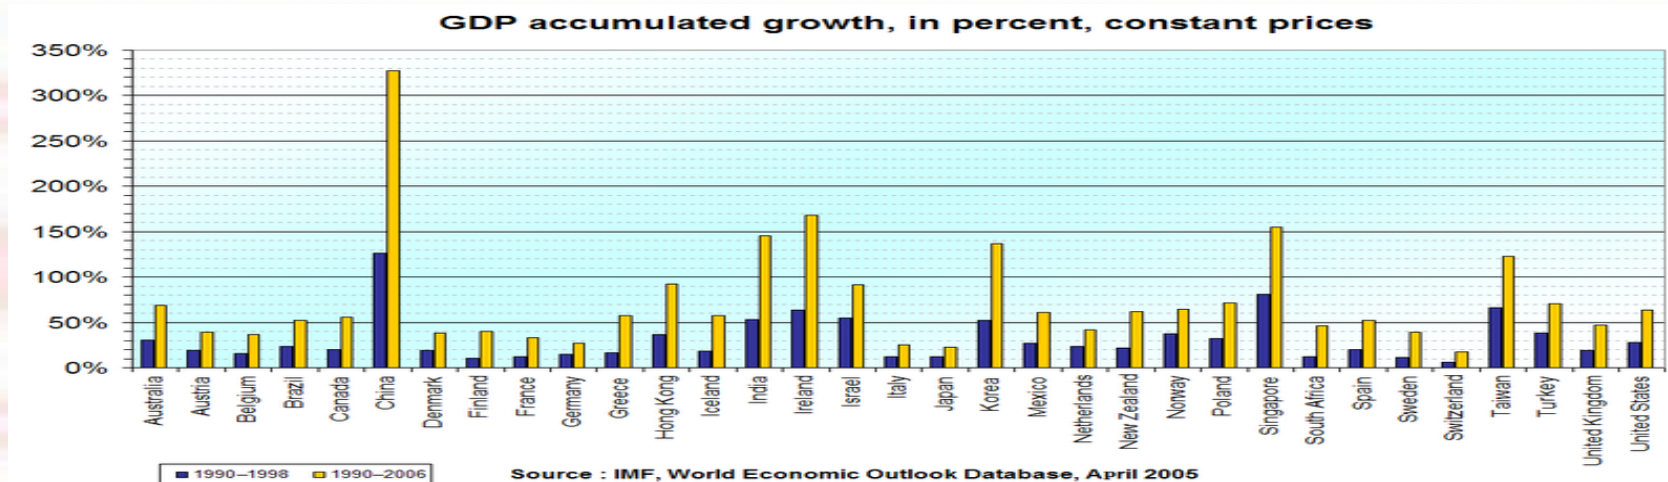

Elective

1. Monopoly and Competition (Microeconomics)

2. Growth and Development (Macroeconomics)

Who are suitable for this subject?

Economics is suitable for everyone to study, but language proficiency and good foundations on Mathematics is certainly an advantage.

Further Studies or Work

You may study the following subjects in a tertiary institution:

Economics, Finance,
Business Administration,
Marketing, Accounting.

